Pain

It hurts...
You see it everytime...
In your dreams...
When you think about something...
Your thoughts go to the things that happened...
You remember it...
Everytime, Everywhere...
You want to forget it...
You can't...
It stay too deep...
Your heart is bleeding, is screaming, is crying...
But the injuries aren't on your body...
They are on your soul...
Sometimes a soul can heal...
But that's rare...
And when, you get scars from the things that happened...
You're marked for the rest of your life...
Like me...
I'm marked for the rest of my life with the scars on my soul...
And they hurt...!
