Homicide

The forrest seems quiet and cold
Where will you take me, my love?
Remind me of the words I've sold
How will you lead me, my love?

On my lips a painfull thing
Where will you take me, my love?
Remind me of the songs I could sing
How will you lead me, my love?

I just don't know anything 'bout me
Nor 'bout the silly things I see
I just don't know anything 'bout you
Nor 'bout what's wrong and true
I just don't know anything 'bout them
Me and you and them

The two of us on a lonesome road
Where will you take me, my love?
Remind me of the lying toad
How will you lead me, my love?

My feet are longing for a rest
Where will you take me, my love?
Remind me of the blood on my chest
How will you lead me, my love?

I just don't know anything 'bout me
Nor 'bout the cruel things I see
I just don't know anything 'bout you
Nor 'bout what's wrong and true
I just don't know anything 'bout them

Me and you and them

What's so wrong about a mystery
Which keeps onh going down in misery?

I just don't know anything 'bout me
Nor 'bout the painfull things I see
I just don't know anything 'bout you
Nor 'bout what's wrong and true
I just don't know anything 'bout them
Me and you and them
