Kapitel 1: Part One

Pledge of a loyalful companion
Part One

You did found me when i was lost
You saved me and so did I (save you)
You were blue as your tardis true
But did this ever mean anything to you?
You came- the dashing hero, the traveller from out of time
You are like the rain
                    The uncomming storm
But when you left me there was only pain.
You were my hero, i followed no matter how far
                                    From London to Agraba
