

Even Angelsfall

Epilog: The Begining

When did this all start?
When did it began to fall apart?
When did it set to get awkward?

We are now alone the others of my Kind are now gone the last Guardians on Lillyths throne

We used to be more our power endless from heaven to Trensalore
But no more

Friendships pass like flowers does even you my bonny lass* are now buried beneath grass

So let me be your Guardian tonight my dear to tell you all about so you might share a tear

For a tale of Lovers and believers and what they've lost
