

Book of Tears

A Collection of my Poetry

Von Ignis_Fatuus

Ocean Soul

The azure fields I do walk
Seeing wonders never thought
Diving deep into the sea
Never coming out again

Water water everywhere
The azure fields are always there
Dress in white and leave the land
Azurite is all you need

The oceans is so bright and calm
But can be deadly after all
Never think the sea is mine
It is fierce and it is wild

All rivers flowing there
A long long way they will go
To see the ocean, see the sea
To be freed forevermore

See the oceans and be free
Forget all pain, forget all grief
Only see the bluest azurite
Dive into and free yourself
