

Book of Tears

A Collection of my Poetry

Von Ignis_Fatuus

Fate

Like the moon her eyes
Stars shimmered in her hair
"Let us meet then in December."

December came
She was not there
A single flake down the sky

January came and went
In February she wrote
"In Egypt I am."

In March she came
With hair as wheat in summer
"I will stay with you."

We were seventeen that year
Young and fair
"We will stay for forever"

Soon church bells chimed
For us and only for us
"Yes, I will", she said

Few months passed in happiness
As fate struck in
"Death stands at our door."

Withering and wilting
Her beauty faded
"Remember our promise."

A grave covered with roses
And lilies she liked

"My dearest girl, I love you so."

Darkness entered my world
The stars vanished in the night
"One day together again."